VA GOP SENATE CANDIDATES SET SIGHTS ON CHESTERFIELD STAGE

CHESTERFIELD, VA—Donald C. Williams, Chairman of the Chesterfield County Republican Committee (CCRC) reported today that all four of the 2012 GOP candidates for the Virginia Senate had confirmed to share the stage and serve as guest speakers for the third annual Central Virginia Lincoln-Reagan Dinner. The fundraiser is set to take place in Chesterfield at the Holiday Inn Koger South Conference Center on February 25th.

The four Republican Senate candidates are Governor George Allen, Bishop E.W. Jackson, Mr. David McCormick and Mrs. Jaime Radtke. During the dinner, each guest will be allotted time to speak on a patriotic or inspirational topic inspired by the evening's theme. This gathering is likely to be the candidates' only joint public appearance in Central Virginia before the Primary.

The CCRC sponsors the Central Virginia Lincoln-Reagan Dinner each February in order to honor the legacy and values of Abraham Lincoln and Ronald Reagan, two of America's most beloved Presidents. Attendees for this event come from all across the Commonwealth, and it's becoming known as one of the premium political events of the season. Often attended by top state and local elected officials and party leaders, the Central Virginia Lincoln-Reagan Dinner will be a night to remember!

Individual tickets are available for purchase on the website. Tables seating up to ten people are available for corporate sponsorship. See <http://www.lincolnreagandinner.com> for more information. Attire for the evening will be range from business to formal. Two receptions, including one for VIP's will begin at 6:00 p. m. and will feature live jazz music, hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar. A professional photographer will be on hand to capture poses of attendees and honored guests. Dinner will be served at 7:00 p. m. Guests will speak throughout the evening.
